New Academic Year –
Updates from the Interpretation Directorate at the CJEU

Dear colleagues,

At the start of this new academic year, the Interpretation Directorate of the Court of Justice of the European Union would like to extend our best wishes to you all!

We would also like to take this opportunity to thank you for your continuous interest in and participation in the various academic activities that we have offered in previous years, such as:

- "Meet the Court", a webinar about the CJEU and the work of interpreters.
- "The Court Takes Note", an online consecutive workshop with a legal twist.
- "One Day at the Court": an online simulation of a case at the CJEU, featuring a mock case file study and interpretation exercises based on real cases.
- Onsite visits, consisting of attending a hearing in the morning and doing simulated exercises in the afternoon, based on material from real hearings – a hands-on experience!

We are pleased to announce that these activities will continue this year, alongside a few important updates:

- We have revamped Meet the Court: "Meet the Court – 2025 Edition" – one day, two languages (EN/FR)! 20th November – save the date!
- Onsite visits: details about the new application process and the programme will follow in the coming weeks.
- A single email address for all contacts: interpretation_outreach@curia.europa.eu

As for the online consecutive workshops and simultaneous exercises, these will continue as before.

That is all from us for now—stay tuned for more details!

We look forward to seeing you soon, whether virtually or in person. In the meantime, if you have any questions or require further information, please do not hesitate to contact us.

Best regards,

The Outreach Team
